Profile of the Lecturer

Keiko Takahashi was born in Tokyo in 1956. It was during her childhood that she first sensed the existence of the soul and came to realize that human beings are more than just a living body and that there is another self within that cannot be seen. This revelation led her to search for answers to such questions as, "For what purpose are we born?" and, "What should be the proper way of living?" She set out on a search for spiritual truth. Later, through deep personal encounters with many persons, she compiled a new view of human beings and the world, the study of the soul that she calls Total Life (TL) Human Principles.

Currently, she is engaged vigorously in writing and lecturing and her lecture series, carried out since 1992, have already been attended by about 600,000 persons.

Her main written works in Japanese include The Realm of Hope; To the Land Beyond; Discovery of the Soul; Beyond the Vast Wasteland; The Adventure of the Soul; Calling: Trials Are Callings; Twelve Bodaishin; The Path of Prayer (Revised Edition); The Reason Why You Were Born as You and books that highlight her educational activities – Revolution and Magical Powers of the Heart – all published by Sampoh Publishing Co. English translations are available for To the Land Beyond, Discovery of the Soul, Beyond the Vast Wasteland, The Reason Why You Were Born as You, The New Human Force, The Grand Challenge, The Principle of Hope, and The Path of Prayer.
